You just ought to call and see how nice Dick (Hissman is fixed up in his new quarters on Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chaffee, of the south side, rejoice of over the arrival of a new baby girl at their house last Why don't some of the political parties get up a genuine, old fashioned barbecue, with rosted oxen, pigs, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker, southwest part of town, are the happy parents of a new babp girl who arrived Saturday morning last.

Interest in the fall coursing races s begining to be awakened and the indications are that the 1892 races will eclipse those of all former years.

Mr. E. Ballard, cashier of the Blue Valley Bank of Wilber, Nebraska, was in the city Saturday. He is interested in coursing, and will be with us at the '92 meeting.

Any person desiring to take a course n short hand, by mail, from a reliable college, can get such a course cheap by calling at this office. Come and investigate our proposition.

The cemetery west of the city does not present the neat appearance it did on Decoration Day. Is there any reason why the grounds should not be kept in a good condition at ALL times?
